

Spring Rolled Back By Arctic Breezes; Tornado In Indiana

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A mass of Arctic air rolled back spring in the nation today, causing heavy snowfalls in the Midwest and sub-zero temperatures in Montana.

Wind-driven snow raked Chicago, harassing residents during the morning rush hour with slick underfooting and slow transportation. The Weather Bureau predicted the fall might reach 10 inches.

The snow ranged from light to eight inches in other parts of the Midwest, extending into Iowa, Nebraska, Wyoming and Colorado. The cold air moved as far south as Dalhart, Tex., which reported 15 degree temperatures.

In central Illinois, Decatur enjoyed 73 degrees Sunday, warmest day since last fall, but it dropped to 30 today, after hail and rain.

Temperatures plummeted to 7 below zero at Helena, Mont., and -5 at International Falls. It was -19 at Cut Bank Sunday.

Kicked up at its leading edge, where the cold wave collided with warm currents from the Gulf of Mexico, were a towering 7,000-foot-high duststorm in southwestern Kansas and southeastern Colorado; a small tornado that struck Anderson, Ind.; thundershowers with some hail in the Ohio Valley, and scattered showers through eastern Nebraska, Iowa and northern Missouri.

The tornado that struck Anderson, a city of 50,000 population, Sunday tore through 10 blocks of a residential section and two blocks of the business district, causing damage estimated at $100,000. One man was injured when struck by a windblown pickup truck. The twister snapped off trees, sucked away roofs and ripped houses from foundations.

By early today, the cold air mass extended from the southern shores of Lakes Ontario and Erie southwestward to central Oklahoma, then northwestward through Wyoming and southwestward to the Pacific Coast.

U. S. May Decide To Scare Russia With Bomb Data

By ELTON C. FAY

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States is tangled in the problem of keeping its military secrets while at the same time letting Russia learn enough about American armament to deter her from trying war.

This perplexity is involved in part in the current discussion over how much should be revealed of officially about the thermonuclear bomb tests.

How do you convince the Soviet government and its military high command that war wouldn't pay off, without also telling too much detail about the nature and size of the force ready to hit them if they make the gamble?

Too Far Behind

Moscow officials are realists, never ready to accept unofficial accounts, demanding solid technical facts before they can be convinced. They want to know, and unfortunately have been able in the past to get, the range and rate of climb of new planes; the secrets of the implosion process for triggering nuclear bombs; precise information on the type and intensity of light and the size and duration of the fireball in various atomic explosions to provide identification of explosive materials used.

Knowing that helps the Russians make their own weapons. It also could help convince them that they are, at a given time, too far behind in the technological race to try war.

But if at any time or for any reason Soviet technicians decide they are even or ahead the deterrent value may be weakened, at-

Barkley Bounces Back Into Politics; Seeks Senate Seat At 76

PADUCAH, Ky. (AP)—Former Vice President Alben W. Barkley has returned to the political wars at age 76, seeking his old seat in the United States Senate where for years he was the Democratic leader.

Often called "Mr. Democrat," Barkley announced from his home here Saturday his candidacy for the post held by Sen. John Sherman Cooper, the biggest vote getter among Kentucky Republicans of modern times in this normally Democratic state. He's the first GOP senator elected from Kentucky since the mid-20's.

The 73-year-old Cooper announced his candidacy for reelection before the end of last year.

Dock Strikers Picketing Today At White House

WASHINGTON (AP)—Longshoremen estimated by police to number around 1,000 picketed the White House today in protest against the government's handling of the bitter dock strike that has tied up the port of New York.

Metropolitan police said about 1,200 to 1,400 of the men had come into the capital by bus and other means, mainly from New York but with their ranks swelled by contingents picked up on the way. They expected more.

Plans announced by the dock workers as they left New York had also included picketing operations at the National Labor Relations Board which begins consideration Tuesday of an NLRB examiner's recommendations in the dock labor dispute.

The men represent the old International Longshoremen's Assn., which apparently won a board-supervised election just before Christmas for the right to represent the dock workers. A board examiner recommended that the election be voided, on the ground that the ILA was responsible for violence and intimidation which he said prevented a fair test at the polls.

A new union, the AFL-ILA organized by the American Federation of Labor, opposed the old ILA in the election and protested the apparent result. The new union was set up after the federation had thrown the old ILA out of its membership for failure to rid itself of gangster elements.

The contest between the two unions began last September after the AFL ousted the ILA for being racket-ridden and organized the new union of the same name.

Lansing Legislators Struggle With Budget And Jobless Benefits

LANSING (AP)—The last 10 days of the Michigan Legislature's contentious session finds the lawmakers struggling with the core issues of unemployment compensation and budgets.

The Legislature hopes to get a big boost toward a solution of its budgetary problems tonight when the State Civil Service Commission meets in special session to decide details of a previously announced pay raise for state employees. The total has been estimated at six to 10 million dollars.

Both House and Senate were stalling final decision on next year's budget—which they had thought all balanced—until the commission can give them a breakdown of how and where the pay raise will be applied.

In the House the unemployment compensation issue will come to the floor for certain tonight. The chamber will debate its own bill raising maximum benefits to $43 a week for a man with four children and $50 for a single man.

The House bill is more liberal than that previously passed by the Senate.

Another major issue of 1954, fair employment practices (FEPC) legislation, comes back to the House stage Tuesday. It previously passed the Senate but has been buried twice in a House committee.

Rep. Louis C. Cramton (R-Lapeer) has served notice he will move to take the FEPC bill away from the hostile committee and force it onto floor for action. The betting was that his move would fail.

The Senate tonight will consider a $200,000 farm marketing improvement program and a proposal to extend the statute of limitations on the Walter Reuther shooting case.

Red China To Be Barred In U. N.

By EDMOND LE BRETON

WASHINGTON (AP)—The U.S. government's position on keeping Indochina out of Communist hands and holding the door against seating of Red China in the United Nations is up for restatement tonight, reportedly in tough terms.

The spokesman is Secretary of State Dulles. He will talk to the Overseas Press Club in New York, and to the nation by ABC radio and Du Mont television.

The broadcast is scheduled for 8 p. m. CST.

The administration has been focusing emphasis on this speech, which Dulles and President Eisenhower went over together in a long White House conference. A whole series of declarations within the past few days, from administration sources and others, has led up to it.

The United States is interested in maintaining stiff resistance against any deals on Indochina with which the Reds might try to tempt the French, some of whom are visibly wearying of the seven-year war. The Reds would be in position to spring such offers at the April 26 Far East conference in Geneva to be attended by representatives of the United States, Great Britain, France, Russia and Red China.

Contractors Start Building At Straits

MACKINAW CITY (AP)—Another visible sign of Straits of Mackinac bridge progress goes up today with the construction of contractors' buildings.

Merritt Chapman and Scott, headquartered at St. Ignace, start construction of a sub-office and a warehouse at this Straits city. The firm is contractor for the Mackinac bridge foundations.

They also have scheduled the building of a breakwater-dock.

Unrest In Cairo Calls Out Army; 2 Rioters Shot

By ROBERT B. HEWETT

CAIRO, Egypt (AP)—The army rushed tanks and steel helmeted troops into Cairo today to preserve order after two demonstrators were reported killed by Egypt's chief justice.

The outbreak came while President Mohamed Naguib, who collapsed and then recovered this morning, engaged in a crucial day-long meeting with Cabinet members and his opponents on Egypt's ruling revolution council.

Tanks and troops took up guard stations at strategic squares in Cairo and around the American and British embassies by order of Maj. Gen. Abdel Hakim Amer, army commander in chief and member of the council.

The army moved in after several hundred anti-Naguib demonstrators smashed their way into the guard room of the State Council (supreme court) and attacked Abdel Razzak Sanhoury, chairman of the State Council and Egypt's top judge.

An army officer emerged from Naguib's house later and told newsmen Sanhoury fired with a revolver into the attacking crowd, killing two and wounding two others. Other reports said only two were wounded and no one killed.

The Interior Ministry issued an order banning the demonstrations in favor of the revolution council. The demonstrations have kept Cairo in turmoil for the last three days. A general strike kept most shops closed and stopped all buses and trains.

Jordan Charges Israeli Attack

JERUSALEM, Jordan Section (AP)—A Jordan spokesman charged today that Israel had launched an organized attack at midnight on a Jordan village two miles west of Bethlehem. First reports said nine Arab troops were killed and 16 wounded.

The spokesman, Maj. Mohammed Ishaq, senior Jordan military delegate to the U. N. Mixed Armistice Commission, said the Israelis also demolished some houses then withdrew to Israel after an hour.

Ishaq said the attack was made on the village of Nahalin in the section of Palestine occupied by Jordan since the 1948 war with Israel.

He said the Jordanian casualties included 6 National Guardsmen and 3 Arab Legionnaires killed, and 12 National Guardsmen and 4 Arab Legionnaires wounded.

The reported attack raised the threat of sharp Arab retaliation against Israel. Representatives of the seven Arab states said in Washington last week after a conference with U. S. Secretary of State Dulles that an aggression by Israel against any one of the Arab nations would be regarded as an attack "upon them all."

McCarthy-Must-Go Movement Gaining Pace In Wisconsin

SAUK CITY, Wis. (AP)—The "Joe Must Go" club, spearheaded by eight editors and writers from Wisconsin weekly newspapers today began the task of getting out about one out of every five of the state's eligible voters to sign petitions aimed at the recall of Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis.).

The club was formed at a meeting called here Sunday by Leroy Gore, editor of a local weekly newspaper, that drew about 500 persons. They came, sponsors said, from 43 of the state's 71 counties. They included Democrats, Republicans and independent voters.

A steering committee of 20 was chosen to circulate petitions throughout the state. These must bear about 404,000 signatures before any recall move can be even considered by the secretary of state.

The state has about 2,200,000 eligible voters.

Even if the move is successful there are several other possible barriers to any recall action of the controversial senator who has gained the nation's attention through his hunt for Communists in government and his rift with the Army.

Several governmental leaders, both federal and state, have expressed the belief that the recall would be outlawed by a federal constitutional provision that Congress shall be the sole judge of its members.

In the event the present move is successful and the signatures are obtained and held valid, a special election would have to be held at which Sen. McCarthy's name would go on the ballot along with any others who qualified to run through filing of nomination papers. It would be a "sudden death" election, with the man with the highest total winning.

TRAGEDY IN SNOWSTORM—Two persons, a mother and daughter, were killed Saturday afternoon at a Cooks, Mich., grade crossing when their auto crashed into a Soo Line freight train during a snowstorm. The dead are Mrs. Carl Ericks, 36, of Cooks, and Alice May Ericks, 14. Injured were: Mary Lou Ericks, 17, driver of the car; Victoria, 11, Larry, 15, and Jerry, 9.

Family Car Hits Train At Cooks; Mother And Child Die; 4 Injured

A mother and her 14-year-old daughter suffered fatal injuries and four youngsters were injured at 12:37 p. m., Saturday when a car driven by Mary Lou Ericks, 17, of Cooks, crashed into a west-bound Soo Line railroad freight train at the Cooks crossing.

The dead are Mrs. Carl Ericks, 36, of Cooks, and Alice May Ericks, 14, her daughter.

The injured are Mary Lou Ericks, 17, driver of the vehicle, who has multiple lacerations of the face and body; Victoria Ericks, 11, who suffered shock; Larry Ericks, 15, who has facial lacerations of the face and hands; and Jerry Lee Ericks, 9, who suffered a fractured thigh and multiple bruises and lacerations.

Two Thrown From Car

State Police of the Manistiquette Post reported the 1941 coach driven by Miss Ericks and Soo Line train No. 15-205B, with George Johnson, 67, of Gladstone as engineer, approached the crossing at approximately the same time Saturday afternoon, during a heavy snowstorm. Miss Ericks told police she attempted to apply the brakes but was unable to avoid crashing into the train. Visibility was obscured by the snow, police state.

The Ericks car, occupied by Mrs. Ericks and her five children, hit the front wheels of the back truck of the first of two diesel engines pulling the train. The front of the motor was torn away and the car tossed off the roadway by the impact of the collision.

The train, destined for Gladstone, consisted of 39 loaded cars and three empty cars and had a total load of 25,024 tons as it sped along at 45 mph. State police reported the Ericks car was probably traveling about 25 mph.

The impact threw Alice Ericks and her mother from the car. The 14-year-old girl died almost instantly, from a fractured skull, broken jaw and internal injuries. She was in front with the driver of the car.

Coming From Church

The mother suffered a skull fracture and multiple lacerations and was unconscious when removed to Schoolcraft Memorial Hospital. She died there at 7:05 a. m., Sunday.

Three of the Ericks youngsters, Mary Lou, Larry and Jerry Lee, were taken to Schoolcraft hospital in Manistiquette for treatment. Mary Lou and Larry were dismissed Sunday afternoon and Jerry Lee is continuing to receive treatment.

The family was enroute from Manistiquette, after attending church services at the Seventh Day Adventist church.

Moved to Cooks In 1949

The car was totally wrecked, and little damage was reported on the train. The engineer was sitting on the side of the engine opposite the side hit by the car. He told police he did not see the car but heard a noise and stopped.

The father of the children, Carl Ericks, of Cooks, was not in the car at the time and was summoned afterwards by Victoria. The injured were removed to the hospital by ambulance.

Alice May Ericks was born Feb. 17, 1940 in McKinley township, near Levering, Mich., and moved to Cooks five years ago. She was a student at the Cooks school, and a member of the Seventh Day Adventist church.

She leaves her father, Carl V. Ericks, and her mother, Mrs. Carl V. Ericks.

Fremont Farmer, 37, Dies After Tractor Tears Off His Foot

FREMONT (AP)—Death ended a nightmare for Fred Obits, 37, Sunday. His foot was torn off by a farm tractor Saturday.

Obits was working on an automatic spray rig connected to his tractor by a power shaft. The shaft caught his pant leg, dragging his foot into the machine.

His 5-year-old son, Bruce was playing nearby and screamed for help. Obits' wife, Lucy, came running from the farmhouse. But in her panic, she couldn't shut off the motor.

The motor was thrashing Obits' body on the ground as it turned. Mrs. Obits screamed for help in a telephone call to Obits' brothers who lived half a mile away. By the time they arrived Obits was free. The whirling shaft had torn his foot off at the ankle.

He was rushed the five miles to Gerber Memorial Hospital in Fremont. Doctors said he had suffered a fractured skull, crushed chest, broken left leg and shock. He died while doctors waited for him to gain strength to amputate his leg.

Inland Closes Cayia Ore Mine

CRYSTAL FALLS (AP)—"Unsettled conditions" in the iron and steel industries have resulted in the closing of one Upper Peninsula iron ore mine and curtailed operations at two others.

Inland Steel Co. Saturday closed its Cayia iron ore mine after two months of suspended operations. R. D. Satterley, Ishpeming general manager, said mining costs had exceeded the return expected from the ore body.

The mine was opened in 1952 and the company stockpiled all ore produced there last year. About 60 men are affected by the closing. Pickands Mather and Co., second largest iron ore producer on the Menominee Range, said effective April 5 its mines at Iron River and Crystal Falls will operate on a four-day week. The move affects 387 workers.

Sabotage Hinted In Sea Disaster Out Of Algiers

ALGIERS, Algeria (AP)—A first shipload of British soldiers, rescued from the burning troopship Empire Windrush, sailed for home today thankful to be alive after one of the most spectacular rescues in naval history.

Some 1,500 Britons—among them 277 women and children and 17 invalid soldiers—calmly and quickly abandoned the blazing ship Sunday 20 miles offshore in the Mediterranean and were rescued safely.

Four crewmen of the 14,651-ton transport died when an engineroom explosion sent fire and choking smoke racing through the vessel.

Came Through Suez

London newspapers speculated the ship had been sabotaged but Admiralty and Transport Ministry authorities refused to comment on this. The speculation was heightened because she has just been through the Suez Canal, where the Egyptians are waging a ceaseless campaign to force out the 80,000 British troops stationed there.

Most of the persons aboard were military personnel and their families on the way home from the Far East and the Suez.

The fire broke out while almost all aboard except the duty crew were still in their quarters.

"All our electric equipment went out," said the ship's Captain, William Wilson. "The loud speakers would not work."

Everyone went calmly to his proper post.

No Panic Aboard

Nobody lost his head, not even the women and children. They were the first to be put aboard the lifeboats.

Aboard the ship were about 280 crewmen and 1,288 passengers—soldiers, sailors and airmen, the 277 women and children and the 17 hospital cases.

Four rescue ships that sped to the scene plucked the survivors from the sea and from lifeboats and brought them to Algiers.

The rescue was made possible by an extraordinarily calm sea. Men swam directly from the burning ship to rescue ships nearby. When an Italian ship tossed lines to swimming passengers, an Italian crewman said he heard the swimmers say, "After you, George!" and the reply, "Oh, no, after you, Cecil."

The captain of the Norwegian freighter Hemsfjord said that in all his life at sea he had never seen such calm. "Everything went off as though the passengers were going through only a lifeboat drill," he added.

He received his sixth tricycle Sunday. All of them were gifts from strangers.

Cancer Drive Plans Completed

Plans for the 1954 campaign for funds for the American Cancer Society in Delta County were virtually completed at a meeting of volunteer workers held Saturday afternoon in Carpenters Hall at Escanaba.

Robert Mosenfelder, county campaign chairman, spoke to 29 Escanaba zone captains present for the meeting and commended them for their willingness to give their time and effort to the drive to raise funds to fight cancer.

The campaign has a two-fold purpose, Mosenfelder said: To help educate the public to the danger signals of cancer and the necessity for early medical attention; and to raise funds with which to carry out the American Cancer Society program at the local, state and national level.

Will Start April 5

Mrs. George C. Stuart, chairman of the Delta County Cancer Unit, directed attention to the fact that 50 per cent of all the money collected will remain in Delta County for local service and education. Solicitors were asked to take to the people of the county information concerning the cancer control service program.

Business places and industrial plants will not be solicited in the cancer campaign, she pointed out. There will be house-to-house solicitation starting Monday, April 5.

Chairman Mosenfelder announced that H. H. Shepeck had accepted appointment as special gifts chairman, and Kenton Olson as chairman for Trades & Labor organizations. It was announced that Girl Scouts will distribute posters in the downtown area, and Boy Scouts will place vote book matches in all business places.

Zone Captains

Robert Brackett, Escanaba city chairman for the cancer campaign, distributed campaign supplies to the following zone captains:

Mesdames Charles Byrnes, Elbridge Baker, Emmett J. Noon, Warren Johnston, Welford Peterson, Jack Foster, Pat Kennedy, Rene Sabourin, H. P. Lindsay, Vernon Lang, C. L. Harrison, Dana Peck, Lee McMillan, Roy Ness, Joseph Schleis, Ralph Erickson, Ernest La Crosse, Roy E. Eckerman, Omer Du Pont, Art Kubley, C. J. Moore, Pearl St. Clair, Wesley Hansen, Peter Wurth, Francie E. Costley, A. M. Gilbert, Henry Pepin, Earl Harris and William E. Anderson.

Oliver Derouin Sr., 306 N. 12th St., was admitted to St. Francis Hospital Sunday for medical treatment.

Managed Deer Herd In Upper Peninsula Urged

Over 90 visitors and delegates to the first annual MUCC-UP Convention here yesterday heard H. H. Bartlett of the Conservation Department's Game Division voice a belief that a managed deer herd in the Upper Peninsula could provide an annual take of 25,000 to 50,000 deer by hunters something over 200,000 animals.

Presently, the hunters have been taking around 20,000 bucks—estimated at 19,260 in 1952 and 23,500 in '53.

Bartlett said that he felt in large blocks of the peninsula the deer numbers have reached the ceiling or a bit above that which can be carried without losses by starvation in severe winters. He cited Drummond Island, Seney, Black Creek, a portion of Dickinson county and another in the west end of the peninsula as examples.

The Sturgeon peninsula, he said is not yet browsed out. That area is one where he hopes to be able to apply management before a bad condition develops.

He explained the operation of the special seasons in the northern part of the Lower Peninsula to illustrate management methods used. The purpose being, in areas where winter food and deer are not in balance—to take off enough deer to bring them in balance.

Stiffer Penalty Favored
Following Bartlett's discussion of deer management the convention voted in favor of proposals to open the deer season on the Saturday nearest November 15, permit taking of one deer, any sex on a camp license and to stiffen and add a mandatory jail sentence to penalties for conviction of head-lighting deer.

President Volman J. Miller of Paw Paw, presided at the meeting which opened at 9:15 a. m. in the Hotel Ludington's Marine Room. Invocation was by the Rev. Karl J. Hammar, long a leader in conservation activities in the state. The convention continued throughout the day.

M. J. DeBoer and David J. Shetter of the Michigan department's Fish Division and the Fisheries Institute addressed the morning session on the trout situation in the state. DeBoer explained the consideration of more restrictive regulations for trout fishing as stemming from a desire to spread the available sport of trout fishing rather than a wish of the department to place restrictions on the fisherman. Shetter explained experiments in the management of trout fishing in search for answers to making more sport available.

Discuss Fish Licenses
Because the Peninsula clubs had been recently polled on the question trout management proposals did not come to a vote. However, on fishing matters the delegates voted unanimously in favor of extending the license requirements to persons over 17 years of age for fishing in Great Lakes waters. A proposal for reciprocal license fees between Michigan and Wisconsin also won approval.

In the afternoon session the convention approved a recommendation that the legislature consider a system of fees for state parks and decided to notify legislators of approval of House Bill 279 which would transfer revenue from minerals, oil and gas from state lands (about $1 1/4 million) to state parks for capital improvements.

David A. Arnold, in charge of predator research for the Game

Division, reviewed the bounty system. His premise was that when using hunters' money bounties should benefit the game in which the hunter is interested. Game populations change and if predators are responsible when they increase in numbers game animals should decrease.

Arnold presented charts of the number of wolves, coyotes, bobcats and foxes bountied for most of the last two decades and contrasted them with charts of population changes in game over the same years. The presentation showed little if any relationship. Convention action on the bounty system was limited to a unanimous vote in favor of the present system.

Bears Are Dangerous

Late in the afternoon Carl T. Johnson, president of the Michigan Bear Hunters' Association led a discussion of bear hunting. Johnson presented problems of the organized group who hunt with dogs. Discussions pointed up a dangerous situation created when people congregate to view bear at garbage dumps.

One incident related was that of a man who attempted to seat his child on a bear in order to take a picture.

The U. P. Sportsmen voted to request a prohibition on the shooting of bear at garbage and food dumps and baited areas.

Final action of the meeting was to express opposition to reduction of the excise tax on sporting arms and ammunition. The tax supports the Pittman-Robertson fund through which federal monies are matched with state funds for conservation research and development.

At the meeting here Sunday voting was restricted to delegates of Upper Peninsula clubs, each club having two voting delegates. Participation in discussions was open to all members of clubs affiliated with the Michigan United Conservation and the non affiliated visitors.

Unaffiliated groups represented at the meeting were the sports-

Assessors Plan Fall Conference

Assessing officers of political units of the Upper Peninsula, in closing session of their conference at Escanaba Saturday, by unanimous vote decided to repeat the conference at a fall meeting in Marquette.

League's Meeting Of Council Candidates Is Public Service

THE League of Women Voters Monday evening will conduct a public meeting of candidates for the Escanaba City Council. It is a program in good citizenship that deserves public approbation and public recognition of community service. It is a meeting that should be well attended.

The program not only offers an opportunity for local citizens to meet the candidates but also to hear their answers to pertinent questions of civic problems. It is a means by which the voters can properly appraise the candidates and to determine which candidates to support in the municipal election April 5.

The League of Women Voters has promoted meetings of this nature in the past, both for city council elections and for school board elections. The results have been most encouraging.

The League's objective in sponsoring these meetings is simply to encourage better understanding by the electorate of civic problems and to create the maximum interest in municipal elections. The prepared questions that have been submitted to the candidates are fair questions that pertain to important aspects of the candidacies.

The meeting is one of public service and is open to the general public without charge of any kind.

No Labor Dispute At Harnischfeger's

A MICABLE settlement of the union contract negotiations at the Harnischfeger plants in Escanaba is good news in this community. The union approved the new contract terms Friday with a decisive vote of 332 to 95. The contract will run to April 15, 1955.

The threat of a strike was dissipated by the settlement of contract negotiations. A strike at Harnischfeger's plants here would have been an extremely severe economic blow to the community. We are already feeling the harsh effects of the labor dispute that caused the suspension of Ward's store here last October. That dispute is still in progress with no indications to the public that it will be resolved soon.

Settlement of the issues in the Harnischfeger negotiations prove that reason and good judgment on both sides prevailed.

Merry-Go-Round

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON—Here are some of the backstage reasons why members of the House Committee on Un-American Activities are aroused over its operations and why the ranking Republican, Congressman Pat Kearney of New York, recently issued a public statement calling the committee setup "rotten."

The committee has some devoted, conscientious members and investigators. However, bickering among the highly paid staff, which draws annual salaries of $197,000, is so bitter that some congressmen on the committee say privately that only the discovery of "another set of pumpkin papers" can restore its prestige and morale.

Chairman Velde of Illinois, now fighting for re-election and the chief cause of the bickering, knows he has to come up with something spectacular to save face, but in his efforts to do this so far, he has simply managed to pull more and more boners—such as subpoenaing Harry Truman.

Here's the run-down on the key figures on the staff. It's a huge staff with an annual payroll which eats up all but $78,000 of the committee's $275,000 appropriation.

Charles E. McKillips—A third-rate committee investigator frequently in hot water. Is so inept that on more than one occasion congressmen have been advised that "someone is trying to impersonate a committee investigator." It was no impersonator, however; it was just McKillips.

At the time of the "pumpkin papers" discovery, McKillips almost got fired because as a "gag" he deliberately posed sleeping in front of the committee safe. The safe contained the pumpkin papers and McKillips was assigned to guard them. The picture of the "sleeping" McKillips was carried by the wire services coast to coast, and the committee members failed to detect anything funny about it.

More recently the committee voted to drop McKillips after he submitted expense vouchers which included the cost of a trip to the Atlantic City race track. When he was not dropped, Congressman Kearney asked his fellow Republican, Congressman Velde, why McKillips was still on the payroll.

"I have overruled our action," Chairman Velde replied.

George Williams—Investigator, former FBI man, was in charge of the investigation of Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam which backfired. He joined the committee in April, 1953, through the influence of his sister, Patsy Rhodes, who is secretary to Congressman Moulder of Missouri, a committee member. Salary: $9,211.28.

Dolores Anderson—She's the fiancée of Chairman Velde, is an A-1 stenographer and accompanies him on various business trips. Because of her closeness to Velde she's a real backstage power and is feared by other staff members, which adds to committee bickering.

Leslie Scott—An Illinois newspaperman and publisher. Scott's job is to check on Velde's constituents and help his re-election campaign. He owns the Lacon Home Journal and the Toluca Star Herald, both in Velde's district, but draws a salary of $6,927.78 from the taxpayers.

Earl Fuoss—Former FBI man. Leader of one of the warring factions that's splitting the committee. Though not a heavyweight, Fuoss has considerable power since he's largely responsible for getting Robert Kunzig named as committee counsel, and Kunzig knows it.

Robert Kunzig—Committee counsel. Politically active in Pennsylvania; was an Eisenhower delegate to the Chicago Republican convention. Other staff members regard him as one who uses his position to play favorites. He was responsible for subpoenaing Maj. Gen. Harry Vaughan, which backfired. When asked by committee members why he issued the subpoena, he explained: "The McCarthy committee was taking this up and I thought we should get in the act."

Tom Beale—Chief clerk, older than most staff members, quiet conscientious, competent.

Courtney Owens, Donald Appell, Bill Wheeler—Committee investigators. All top-notch men.

Jackson Jones—Able young investigator and a hard worker. Jones was fired while the committee was holding hearings in Chicago because he refused to cooperate with Kunzig. Other committee members have demanded that he be retained.

Questions and Answers

Q—We always hear about the federal deficit. I've been wondering, when has the federal government shown a surplus recently?

A—The federal budget has shown a surplus in three fiscal years since the end of World War II, namely, fiscal 1947, 1948 and 1951. The surplus in fiscal 1948 was $8,419,470,000, the largest in U. S. history.

Q—What does the term "franking" mean?

A—Franking is the practice of signing or otherwise marking the envelope containing a letter or other communication, in order to have it sent postage-free. Postmaster General Arthur E. Summerfield in 1953 estimated that franking for all government agencies would cost about $4 million for the year. Of this amount, the Post Office Department estimated that free mail for Congressmen would cost about $1.6 million for the year.

Into The Past

10 YEARS AGO

Escanaba—The first boat of the 1944 shipping season is expected to arrive in Escanaba late this week.

Manistique—A mother bear, denuded with three cubs about 8 miles north of here, has been something of an attraction of late. The other day they moved out, presumably because of the disturbance caused by curious visitors.

20 YEARS AGO

Escanaba—Two new CCC camps are soon to open in Delta county—one in the Nahma vicinity and the other in Garden township near the mouth of the Fishdam river.

Escanaba—Construction of a new city garage and storage building is being pushed.

Our Motto---Anything Can Happen and Probably Will

Puppets Without Strings Give New Hansel And Gretel Version

ON MYERBERG'S SET for "Hansel and Gretel," technician reaches up through trap door to adjust position of puppet-like stars for one of 117,000 single photos that will comprise new movie.

By JAMES FLOWERS

NEW YORK—(NEA)—There's an old dance hall down in lower Manhattan where a motion picture company is busy shooting the final scenes of the first full-length puppet technicolor version of "Hansel and Gretel."

Outside the building the street is swarming with tenement urchins playing stick ball and cops and robbers. If these kids could only glimpse inside their eyes would become as big and bright as the puppet-like stars of the film.

For producer Michael Myerberg and his staff of more than 50 technicians have fashioned some amazing sets, costumes and figures. Although the figures of Hansel, Gretel, Rosina the Witch, Fire the Cat, Gingy the Bear, Susy the Goose, Dozy the Sand Man and others look like puppets, they're not. There are no strings attached.

Myerberg prefers to call them "Kinemins." The one-third life-size characters have jointed aluminum and steel skeletons, and their feet are magnetized for balance. Their bodies are fashioned from a rubber-plastic material that looks so much like real flesh that they literally come to life.

Producer Myerberg has spent 15 years of research and development to give unlimited movement and facial expression to his "Kinemins." Elaborate head mechanisms control their movements. Even his stages are magnetically controlled.

The minute adjustments of expression and action are made manually and photographed frame by frame. Myerberg estimates that no less than 117,000 single photographs will be taken for his 76-minute production.

"We've been in production almost two years now," says the hard-working Myerberg. "As you can see, it's a long and intricate process. We hope to complete the picture in May and release it in August of this year."

As everyone knows, "Hansel and Gretel" is a beloved Grimm fairy tale. It was adapted for the film by Padraic Colum, famous Irish writer and poet.

The unique production has been filmed entirely in the former dance and assembly hall. Myerberg turned it into a completely integrated studio. Sets, wardrobes and figures are all made and assembled there.

Since the film is being made in HANSEL AND GRETEL, as well as other characters in Myerberg film, have jointed aluminum and steel skeletons, bodies of rubber and plastic. Their feet are magnetized for balance.

New York the big question was whether or not it is a Hollywood production. Theatrical producer Myerberg ("The Skin of Our Teeth," "Lute Song") waved his arm toward the dazzling three-dimensional set and camera crew:

"No, they aren't Hollywood people. We had to have fresh minds and ideas for this sort of thing. Take, for instance, Evalds Dajemkis, our set designer. This skilled technician came over from Europe but couldn't find a job. We found him painting houses in the Bronx."

Myerberg's eyes roamed around the studio and came to rest on a calm, pleasant-looking man. He nodded toward him and said:

"That's John Paul, our director. He's been working with me for years helping to perfect this process. You see, he's not hopping around shouting 'quiet.' The man who makes the steel skeletons of the figures is a former dentist. He left his practice to join us."

The dialogue and songs are dubbed in by such stage personalities as Anna Russell, Mildred Dunnock, Constance Brigman and Frank Rogier.

They are backed up by Franz Allers, conducting a 60-piece symphony orchestra, and the Apollo Boys Choir. The original WICKED WITCH leers at camera. She's one-third life size.

Humperdinck operatic score has been retained in its entirety.

Myerberg estimates the production will cost approximately $1,000,000 by the time it's finished. If this one turns out all right he hopes to do "Lute Song," and maybe "Alladin."

After watching the rushes of Hansel and Gretel playing in the lush woods it was kind of disturbing to step into the street and see kids romping in "an asphalt jungle" instead of in a dense forest.

A HORRID WORD—In polite society the word most often heard to describe the anti-social act is expectorate. Because spit is considered a horrid word. But that is what far too many of our citizens do when they expectorate on the public sidewalk—they spit.

One of our readers, a lady who asks that her name be withheld, writes as follows:

"Perhaps you would be so kind as to comment in your column on the subject of those who dirty our sidewalks, spread disease germs, and otherwise make themselves obnoxious by expectorating on the sidewalks. To me, it is disgusting."

"I am sure there must be city laws that prohibit such acts. Certainly it is most unsanitary."

The lady is correct in her assumption that spitting on the sidewalk is a violation of a city ordinance. But to our knowledge no complaint has been made to the police, no warrants have been issued, and no one has ever been arrested for thus breaking the law.

HABIT-FORMING—People spit on the sidewalk because, first of all, they have made spitting a habit. And the downtown sidewalks are good locations to practice their habit.

This does not improve the condition of the sidewalks, of course, and it does cause more sensitive citizens to feel a bit squeamish about where they step when entering or leaving the shops.

But the habitual spitters among our citizenry are unconcerned so long as their habit is not interrupted. They go their determined way, leaving behind them at intervals the material they do not themselves want.

Downtown sidewalks before the arrival of the first cleaning rain of springtime are filthy with this accumulation of dirt. The answer to the problem is to break the spitters of their filthy habit—or levy a special tax to pay for sidewalk cleaning.

HOME TRAINING—According to psychiatrists and social workers, man is a creature of his environment. We behave as we do because that behavior is socially acceptable.

Following through on this theory, it becomes apparent that those who spit on the sidewalks in Escanaba's downtown shopping district also practice their habit at home.

Not only do they spit indiscriminately at home, but so do their parents, aunts, uncles and other relatives. They come from a long line of spitters.

The result is that these people are unable to understand why others should object to spitting on the sidewalk, or anywhere else. These habitual spitters, in theory at least, would feel they were being discriminated against should the anti-spitting law be enforced.

TIMES HAVE CHANGED—There is the possibility, too, that the spitter has not kept up with he changing times. He is still living in the good old days when brass cuspidors decorated hotel lobbies.

But times have changed since the gas-light and buggywhip era. Saloons no longer have their floors covered with sawdust, tobacco chewing is becoming a lost art, and ladies no longer wear heavy shoes with high tops.

There is just no place these days for the spitter to practice his art except downtown sidewalks. And this is one of the least desirable locations, since many of today's women wear open-toed shoes and light sandals that are easily ruined by messy sidewalks.

A HEALTH PROBLEM—Medical research has conclusively shown that many of the respiratory infections are communicable.

Persons with colds spread the virus by coughing, sneezing and spitting; tuberculosis is highly infectious and is communicated in the same manner.

Besides being a most disagreeable habit to others, spitting is likely to result in the spread of disease germs. Who knows but what some of the springtime cold epidemics are not caused by emanations rising from filthy sidewalks?

The answer to the problem is one of education—and enforcement of the law if necessary. Disposable tissues and handkerchieves are always available for the use of those who must spit.

Certainly the law might very well take cognizance of the unhealthy and unsightly activities of Escanaba's streetcorner "stand and spit" clubs. Ours would then be a cleaner and healthier town.

The Doctor Says... Burning Sensation Felt In Mouth Can Be Due To Variety Of Causes

By EDWIN P. JORDAN, M. D. — Written for NEA Service

Many people have written about a most annoying complaint, of which today's first letter is an example.

Q—What can cause a constant feeling of burning in the mouth? This bothers me most of the time and nothing I do seems to help.

A—There are, of course, possible local factors such as smoking or taking into the mouth irritating foods, drinks, mouth washes or the like. Often, however, people who have this distressing sensation cannot identify any local cause. It may be related to general diseases such as diabetes, pernicious anemia, or vitamin A deficiencies, or to lessening of the secretion of saliva.

In elderly people, the latter, which results in a dry mouth, is perhaps the most common. Sometimes the tongue or lining of the mouth will show visible changes of irritation, but sometimes these mucous membranes will look perfectly normal. This complaint offers a difficult problem to the physician who can only try to seek the cause and correct it if he can find it, or treat it symptomatically.

Unfortunately, it quite frequently resists all attempts at relief, and under such circumstances has to be looked upon as an ailment which the patient has to "grin and bear."

Q—I am taking ergotamine for my migraine headaches. This seems to be a powerful drug. Can it do any damage to my health?

A—Ergotamine is a powerful drug and if taken in too large doses or too frequently can cause undesirable reactions. For this reason its dosage and frequency should be determined by the physician who can keep it down to safe limits.

Q—Is there any truth in the belief that tomatoes and strawberries are bad for people who have rheumatism?

A—No.

Q—Is there any medical proof that tea made with alfalfa seed is of value for arthritis, stiff muscles from old age, or other conditions?

A—I do not know of any.

Q—My 65-year-old father is receiving testosterone injections for general build-up. Are these likely to help or harm him?

A—There is some medical difference of opinion about the use of testosterone. It is my impression that in general the more conservative members of the profession are not inclined to give this hormone preparation for general "buildup" purposes, but only when there are certain definite indications for using it.

Q—What is the meaning of Meckel's diverticulum, and what steps should be taken to effect a cure?

A—This is a sac-like structure near the appendix which is ordinarily eliminated before birth, but occasionally persists into life after birth. Its treatment is surgical.

Captain Freed Of 3 Charges

CLEVELAND (P)—A Coast Guard board Thursday dismissed three of six allegations against Capt. Henry Stiglin of Vermilion, captain of the ore freighter, Henry Steinbrener. It sank last May 11 in a Lake Superior gale with a loss of 17 lives.

The government recently declined to prosecute Stiglin for criminal negligence. Coast Guard headquarters in Washington recommended Stiglin be charged with:

- 1—Having departed from sheltered waters without securing hatch covers properly.
  - 2—Having failed to seek a lee shore shelter when the storm struck his vessel.
  - 3—Failure to change course in the face of the impending threat of a drastic change in the weather.
  - 4—Having failed to examine the cargo hold or have soundings taken to determine how much sea water the vessel had taken on in the early part of the storm.
  - 5—Failure to use storm oil to quiet the waves or rescue speed when heading into a gale.
  - 6—Failure to have allegedly damaged hatch cover clamps repaired before leaving port.
- The second, fourth and fifth assertions were dismissed. A ruling on the others was expected next week.

GROWING SPIRITUALLY

James 4:6-10

HALF-BAKED CHRISTIANS

We must look further at Christians who have come to a stalemate. Hosea describes Ephraim as "a cake unturned as it was baked" (Hos. 7:8, Moffatt). He is the type of the half-baked Christian. Portion of his life given to God, and portions held back — half-baked. The emotional side developed, the volitional undeveloped—half-baked. The law side strong, but the love side weak — half-baked. "There is a paralysis of the nerve that leads from the brain to the hip pocket" — the purse isn't converted—half-baked. The conscious mind has been converted, but the subconscious mind has not been, so half-baked. Converted in actions but not converted in reactions—half-baked.

The half-Christians become the centers of problems to themselves and others. A half-Christianity is more of a problem than a power. Many people have just enough Christianity in them to set up an irritation—just enough to make them miserable. They don't belong wholly to the Kingdom, and they don't belong to the world; they are a halfway house trying to be a home. And no one can rest in half-wayness. He can only rest in full commitment, for that is what we are made for.

As a result of this half-baked condition decay sets in in Ephraim. "Foreigners eat away his strength" (v. 9). We are made for the Kingdom—it is our native land. There we are at home. Coming into the Kingdom brings a sense of coming Home. There we are naturalized. But we allow alien ways of life to eat our strength. Love is natural and builds us up; we turn to resentments which are alien and which eat our strength. Self-giving is natural and strengthens the giver; we turn to alien selfishness which eats away our strength.

But the process is so slow that it is scarcely noticed—"unknown to him." Many a man decays so gradually that he cannot tell when he crossed the line from honesty to dishonesty, from purity to impurity, from being a Christian to being a pagan.

People seldom plan deliberately to go to hell; they slip into it inch at a time—"unknown to him."

Gracious Father, save me from the little decays that bring the big disasters, the little follies that bring the big ones. Amen.

AFFIRMATION FOR THE DAY: No little things canceling the Big in my life today.

Swedes Like Ice Cream And Steaming Hot Dogs

By GODFREY ANDERSON
STOCKHOLM (AP)—How Americanized are the Swedes?

A Soviet correspondent told the Russians recently that Swedish youth was "going astray after silly Western fashions," preferred boogie-woogie to symphonies, chewed American gum and was being "mentally poisoned" by a stream of gangster films and literature.

"Young men wore short, narrow trousers and narrow jackets, the sleeve of which hardly ever reached to the wrists, long, sharp-toed shoes and coats which looked as if they had been taken from younger, smaller brothers.

"Mosquito Squashers"

And the hairdo of the youths also doesn't lag behind their costumes. It is difficult to tell from a distance whether you see a man or a woman . . .

The truth is there are Swedish youths who dress like that—but it's a little hard to blame Americans for it. The few who dress that way get smiled at. Stockholders even have a special name for those razor-sharp shoes: "Mosquito Squashers."

A fair proportion of the younger population likes chewing gum, and jazz. But, for every Swede who dresses in what the Soviet correspondent calls American fashions, there is another who apes the latest styles from the Paris Latin Quarter.

The most popular form of greeting here is "Hej" (pronounced hay) but the Swedes claim that was used by the ancient Vikings long before Americans ever called out "Hi".

High Living Standard

The fact that Sweden (with Switzerland) has probably the highest living standard in Europe has resulted in the widespread adoption of American-style home gadgets.

There are more movie theaters per head of population in Sweden than in any country in the world, including the United States. The first motel expects to be ready to receive visitors this summer and two drive-in movie theaters are about to open.

Swedes like ice cream and the steaming hot dogs they can buy from corner stands all winter long. "The truth is," one Swede explains, "like most smaller nations we always have followed trends set by the world's dominant power."

In the 18th century everything here was modeled on the French. Then came a very strong German period. After World War I came an English period. Now it's the turn of the Americans, perhaps."

Dr. Joel W. Clay Addresses Class On Breast Cancer

POWERS—Members of the Adult Education class and guests gathered on Wednesday evening to hear Dr. Joel W. Clay, Menominee surgeon, speak on the subject of "Breast Cancer."

He stressed that breast cancer is curable, but it must be found in its early stages of growth. He emphasized that women themselves can aid this fight against cancer by early discovery and through diagnosis of the disease. He stated that there is an increase in its prevalence due to the larger number of the past 40 year age group.

Dr. Clay stated that 90 per cent of breast cancers are accidentally discovered; that two-thirds of the breast lumps are found to be benign, but that women should consult their physician as soon as possible after discovery of any unusual lump. That such discovery can be made by means of a periodic self-examination. A film was shown by Dr. Clay showing the method recommended by physicians for self-examination for breast cancer. In conclusion Dr. Clay stated that adequate, meticulous breast surgery is the sole reliance for cure of cancer when malignant growth is found.

How To Get Your Money's Worth When You Buy That Easter Suit

By DOROTHY ROE
Fashion Editor

A good suit is the backbone of the average American woman's wardrobe, probably representing her major clothes investment of the year.

They may economize on gay little dresses and accessories from the budget department, but when it comes to buying a suit, most women realize that it pays to get the best they can afford.

An advocate of this theory is Edith Small of Hollywood, a designer noted especially for her knack of making tailored suits look smooth, yet strictly feminine. During a recent New York visit Miss Small, whose stature matches her name, outlined the following tips on how to get your money's worth when you go shopping for a suit:

1. Before you try on anything determine your correct size. If you don't know it, have the saleswoman measure your waist, bust, shoulder width and length from back of neck to waist. This will tell you whether you should wear a misses', junior or so-called custom size. (The last is for gals who are short but somewhat wide.)

2. Determine ahead of time what color scheme you want in your spring wardrobe. You should plan to wear the same accessories with your new suit as with other items. If you have navy shoes and handbag, a navy or grey suit is in order. If your get accessories are brown, choose beige or brown for your suit. Black accessories, of course, go with everything.

3. Choose the body line that fits you best. You have to feel good in the suit, if it fits well. When you try on the suit, don't just stand in front of the mirror and look at it. Move around. Sit down. Raise your arms to adjust your hat. The suit should feel comfortable and easy in any position if it fits correctly.

4. Don't buy a suit if it has to be raised at the shoulders. This is a tricky and expensive alteration. Jacket or skirt can be altered easily at the waistline, but if more extensive alterations are required, try another size.

5. Always look in the rear-view mirror when trying on a garment. If jacket pouches above the waist in back, it means it is too long from neck to waist. You need another size.

6. Look carefully at fabric labels.

7. Be fussy about styling and eye appeal.

8. Examine buttonholes, lining and inside seams for details of good workmanship.

9. Most important, be sure the suit is flattering to you, and that you feel comfortable in it. 10. Don't buy an extreme style unless you buy a new suit every year. A good suit should look just as smart next year as this.

Lenore C. Olson Becomes Bride Of Richard Hanson

A double ring ceremony united in marriage, Miss Lenore Carol Olson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Olson, Gladstone, and Richard Hanson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Nester Hanson, Stonington, on Saturday afternoon at 2:30 in the First Lutheran church. Rev. Clifford Peterson, pastor, read the vows.

Vases of mixed flowers intermingled with lighted tapers forming the decorations. Mrs. Howard Sunblad, organist, played the traditional wedding marches and accompanied Mrs. Donald Hirn, soloist, who sang "O Perfect Love" and "Because."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose a ballerina-length gown of imported chantilly lace and pleated nylon net with long sleeves featuring a large pleated cuff of the nylon net. Her shoulder length veil of imported French illusion was fastened to a lace head piece adorned with lace leaves and pearls. Her only jewelry was a four-strand pearl necklace, the bridegroom's gift. She carried a bouquet of white carnations centered with sweetheart roses.

Bridal attendants were the bride's sister, Miss Helen Olson, as maid of honor, and the bridegroom's sister, Miss Elinor Hanson and his sister-in-law, Mrs. Betty Hanson, were bridesmaids. The maid of honor was gowned in a ballerina-length dress of pink chantilly lace with a matching jacket and headpiece and gloves. She carried a colonial bouquet of mixed flowers. The bridesmaids wore identical gowns of blue chantilly lace with matching jackets and corresponding headpieces and gloves. They carried colonial bouquets of mixed flowers.

Darlene Anderson and Richard Anderson, cousins of the bride were flower girl and ring bearer. Elmer Holm Jr., another cousin of the bride, lit the candles before the start of the bridal ceremony.

The flower girl was dressed in a pink floor-length dress of nylon over taffeta. She carried a basket of mixed flowers and wore a matching floral headpiece.

Gordon Peterson, a close friend of the bridegroom, served as best man. Ushers were the bride's brother, Robert and the bridegroom's brother, William.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Olson chose a lilac colored crepe dress with white accessories and a corsage of roses and yellow carnations. The bridegroom's mother wore a navy blue crepe dress with matching accessories and a corsage of roses and carnations.

A wedding dinner, with covers laid for 75 guests, was served at 4:30 at the Legion hall in Rapid River. The wedding cake, with the traditional miniature bride and groom centered the table. In the evening a reception and wedding dance was held at the Alton hall at Ensign.

The newlyweds have left on a wedding trip to the Western states. For going away the bride wore a blue and white checked suit with red accessories and a corsage of white carnations. On their return, they will reside in Milwaukee.

The bride is a graduate of Gladstone High school, class of 1953. She is employed as a clerk with the Telephone Co., in Milwaukee.

Was Suspicious Of Old Money

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (AP) — When a man from an isolated section of the county came in to pay his taxes, he put down two of the "blanket" style $20 bills which the government took out of circulation back in 1933.

The young fellow behind the cashier's window, a mere lad of 25 or so, eyed the bills skeptically. Called in for consultation, Chief Tax Deputy Ansel Umberger said: "Nothing wrong with those notes, they're just a little aged," and swept them into the till.

The taxpayer triumphantly pocketed his receipt and swaggered away.

Houghton, Negaunee Are Amateur Cage Champs

HERMANVILLE — Houghton's tall and terrific Orangotangs captured the Class A championship and Negaunee Maruke's the Class B title in the Upper Peninsula Amateur basketball tournament last night.

The Houghton cagers, veterans of Houghton Tech college teams, decided the Negaunee Eagles 74-71 in the title tilt. In the semifinal game Sunday afternoon Houghton eliminated the Escanaba Skinny's Bar team, 69-60.

Stephenson's Strollers fell to Negaunee Maruke's, 63-60, in the Class B finals after trimming Escanaba Mike's Bar 56-45 in the semifinals Sunday afternoon.

In the Class B championship game Negaunee pulled steadily away until Stephenson trailed by 10 points entering the final period. The Strollers cut the deficit in the fourth quarter but never caught up. Maki's 33 points led the Negaunee scoring effort. Eight

Tigers Lose Game But Make Mound Discovery

SARASOTA, Fla. (AP) — Lost—one ball game. Found—one pitcher.
The Detroit Tigers dropped a 2-1 decision in 11 innings to the Boston Red Sox Sunday. But they may have found something a lot more valuable in the right arm of Ray Herbert.

It was Herbert's performance that brightened the afternoon. He pitched seven innings, allowed only three hits, struck out 10.
Herbert didn't have a steady starting job last season. He appeared in 43 games, more than any other Detroit pitcher, but started in only three.

So far this spring, Herbert has pitched 21 innings, allowed only two runs and walked only one man.
For Detroit yesterday's loss was the 13th against seven wins. It was also the fourth game the Tigers had lost by one run. They have won three by the same margin.
Dick Donovan, a right handed rookie, took the loss. He started in the eighth inning, and allowed only four hits through the eleventh.
But once the Red Sox got through to him, they picked up one run. It was all they needed.
Billy Consolo and Karl Olson contributed the final blows in the

Old Age Is Biggest Threat To Dodgers In Bid For Third Flag

By JOE REICHLER
VERO BEACH, Fla. (AP) — The biggest threat to the Brooklyn Dodgers' chances of capturing their third consecutive pennant is old age.

The years are creeping up on the club's top stars. This could be the Achilles' Heel. Duke Snider is 27 and Junior Gilliam is 25. All the other regulars are over 30. Jackie Robinson is 35 and Peeewe Reese will be 35 next July.

Age and all, Brooklyn has an awfully impressive club that packs tremendous power, brilliant defense, outstanding speed and the strongest pitching in years. The team is set in every position.

Manager Newcomer
About the only newcomer certain to "make" the club is the manager, Walter (Smokey) Alston.

The Dodgers still are the team to beat for the National League flag. Dodger fans won't be satisfied unless Alston leads his forces to a World Series triumph, preferably over the Yankees. Few men in baseball ever were on more of a spot.

Alston, a quiet and restrained person, didn't appear disturbed by this unusual situation. And with

Hawks Must Win On Tuesday

Portage Lake Ahead 2-1, In Title Series

HOUGHTON (Special) — They didn't have as far to go as the Hawks did Thursday night, but it was Portage Lake that staged a comeback to win the third clash in the Upper Peninsula championship Doc Gibson trophy finals here yesterday afternoon.

Before 1,643 fans in Michigan Tech's Dee Stadium, the Pioneers came from behind to defeat the Hawks, 6-2, and thus gain a 2-1 edge in the best-of-five title series that will be continued in the Marquette Palestra tomorrow night.

Facing the necessity of a win to square the playoff series and send it into the fifth and deciding game in Houghton Thursday night, the Hawks will go against the ever-dangerous and explosive Pioneers at 8 tomorrow night.

Approximately 300 Escanaba fans are expected to drive to Marquette for the important battle. Tickets are being sold in advance at the Quality Home Furniture store in Escanaba, and both general admission and reserved seat tickets will be sold at the gate beginning at 6:45 tomorrow night. A special bloc of 250 tickets has been set aside for Escanaba fans.

Those who saw the Hawks turn back the Pioneers, 8-7, last Thursday night saw the greatest comeback effort ever made at the Palestra. Trailing 7-2 after 16 minutes and 55 seconds of play, the Escanabans held the Pioneers and whittled the margin down and finally went ahead, 8-7, with only two and a half minutes of play remaining.

Portage Lake, led by the agile Tony Bukovich, made the comeback effort here yesterday. The Pioneers were never ahead until 46 minutes and 14 seconds of play and then they won going away in one of the finest games played here this season.

Escanaba went into the lead at 3:39 in the first period when big Ted Olson whistled a shot home on assists by Joe Ricci and Hubert Hamilton.

They held this lead throughout a furiously played first period when they withstood the Pioneer's typical opening offensive thrusts. Goalie Ben Artwich made 10 beautiful saves the opening period, exactly twice as many as Clyde Berryman in the Pioneer net.

The Hawks made their big bid in the second period when Berryman had to make 13 stops to eight for Artwich. Each made nine in the finale for a total of 27 each for the game.

In the final analysis, it was Tony Bukovich's goal making talents

Santee Wins But Posts Slow Time

CHICAGO (AP) — Having had to forget about running a four-minute mile indoors this season, Kansas' great Wes Santee now begins a series of tries for the mark outdoors.

Santee ended his indoor season Saturday in the Chicago Daily News Relays, turning in a disappointing 4:11.8 in the Bankers Mile and beating Lawton Lamb by only 15 feet.

Afterwards, Santee said "it was just one of those things."
The 21-year-old miler makes his first 1954 outdoor appearance at the Texas Relays this weekend.

Saturday's capacity Chicago Stadium crowd of 17,618 gave Santee whooping backing throughout his effort but the real show - stealer turned out to be veteran Mal Whitfield, the Olympic champion.

He was the meet's only double winner, taking the 600-yard run in 1:10.0 and setting a meet record of 2:10.5 in the 1,000 yard run.

Ohio State Swimming Coach Praises Team

By OWEN CRUMB
SYRACUSE, N. Y. (AP) — Mike Peppe, whose Ohio State University swimmers have won more titles than he can count, today proudly proclaimed his present band "the best team I've ever coached."

The veteran mentor, who directed the American divers at the last Olympics, was particularly impressed with the two records set by Ford Konno, the little buckeye by way of Honolulu, as State won the NCAA team title. Konno shattered records both in the 440-yard and 1500-meter freestyle events.

Ohio Staters lived up to expectations. They won the meet with 94 points, while Michigan could do not better than second with 67. Ohio State counted nine individual crowns with Konno's two records

Sports Writers Name All-U.P. Teams And Coach Of The Year

IRONWOOD — Selection of Upper Peninsula's outstanding basketball players and cage coach of the year was made at the annual spring meeting of the U. P. Sports Writers Association here Saturday.

U. P. selections, by class and an all-class quint, will be released this week. First release will be the Class B and Class E teams on Tuesday. Coach of the year will be released in all newspapers Wednesday along with Class C and D teams and the all-class quint will be named Thursday. First and second teams were picked in all four classes.

The writers went on record commending Frank Rodman of Hermansville for outstanding achievement in amateur independent athletics in the Upper Peninsula. Rodman is the originator and promoter of the annual U. P. championship Gold Medal basketball tournament and has promoted baseball and other sports for many years. The Gold Medal tournament, completed Sunday, has been conducted for 16 years.

Resolutions were also passed expressing appreciation to coaches, district and regional basketball tournament managers and the Michigan High School Athletic Association for cooperation with sports writers in the Upper Peninsula.

The sports scribes also voted to conduct weekly polls in both basketball and football to select the leading teams in both sports during their respective seasons. The polls, with all U. P. newspapers taking part, will begin next fall during the football season.

Writers attending the meeting represented newspapers in Escanaba, Ironwood, Menominee, Sault Ste. Marie, Marquette, Iron Mountain, Munising, Houghton, Iron River and Wakefield.

The third game of the 22-game cross country series will be played in Toronto tonight. The last time the famed Negro team was defeated was by another all-star college outfit in April of 1953.

The two games at the Garden Sunday, with the Globetrotters winning the matinee contest 75-70 and the night game 69-57, attracted 33,382 fans — 18,243 in the afternoon and 15,139 at night.

Bob Leonard of Indiana topped the collegians in the afternoon game with 18 points, one more than Notre Dame's Dick Rosenthal. Frank Ramsey of Kentucky led them at night with 19.

Lakers, Syracuse Get Set For NBA Playoffs

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — The Minneapolis Lakers, invariably at their peak in pursuit of the playoff dollar, match their unruffled veterans against battered Syracuse this week in the start of pro basketball's world series.

The stake is the National Basketball Assn. championship and the $7,500 that goes to the winner. The teams play here Wednesday night and Saturday afternoon, the second game before a national television audience, before shifting to Syracuse in the best-of-seven series.

Five times a league champion in six years of competition, Minneapolis advanced into the league playoff Sunday by scoring eight points in the last minute to beat Rochester, 82-72. The victory gave the Lakers a 2-1 edge in the Western Division's best-of-three playoff.

Syracuse won the Eastern Division championship by taking two straight from Boston after sweep-

Cleveland's Slugging Rookie Poses Dilemma

By ED CORRIGAN
AP Sports Writer

Dilemmas—those things that chop years off the life of a major league manager—are nothing new to Al Lopez of the Cleveland Indians. He's had a king-sized one since he took over the Tribe and has been trying to beat out the New York Yankees for the American League pennant.

But now he has a brand new one: what to do with Rudy Regalado.

This 23-year-old rookie infielder has shown no respect for opposing pitchers since the start of spring training. At the moment he has clubbed nine home runs and is batting a cool .481 with 25 hits in 52 tries during the exhibition season.

Fielding Is Poor

This sort of slugging would be enough to light the eyes of any manager. So Lopez' eyes lit.

But... The kid can't field, or, at least it sure looks like he can't. He's a third baseman by trade, but there's no use battling Al Rosen for the position, so Lopez thought perhaps he'd go well at second base.

The Indians dropped another one to the New York Giants Sunday, 10-4. Rudy slugged two home runs and a pair of singles, but he also made two errors, one at second and one at third.

Meanwhile, ancient Vic Raschi is warming the cockles of St. Louis Cardinal Manager Eddy Stanky's heart. He went five innings against his old mates and gave up five hit Sunday. The Cards won the ball game 4-2.

Orioles On Spruce

The amazing Baltimore Orioles continued to wield big bats. They clubbed the Chicago Cubs 19-14 with Don Lenhardt hitting three home runs and driving in seven runs.

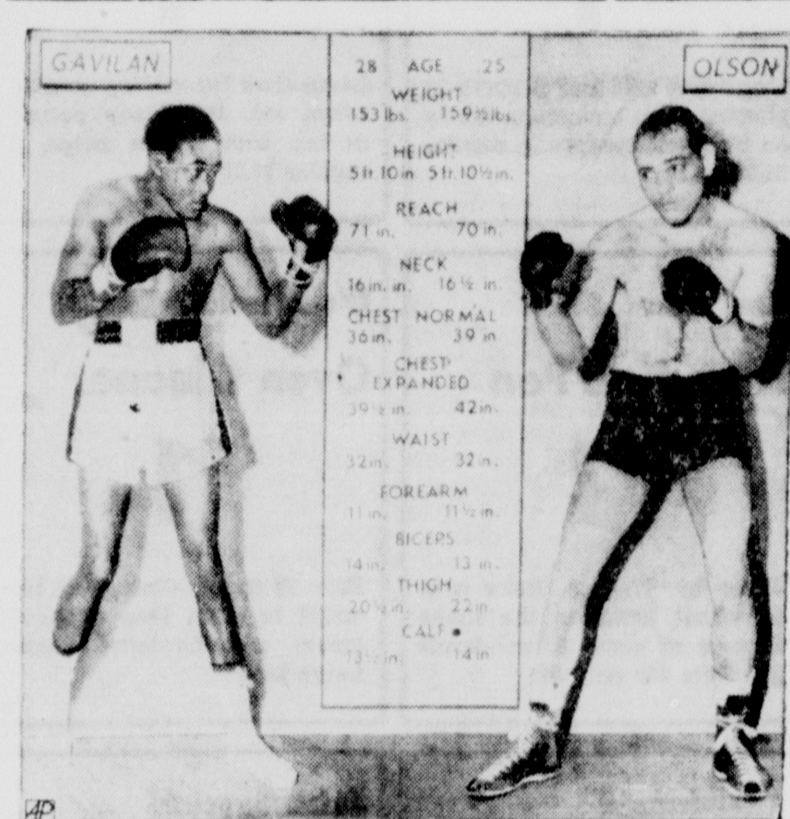

Ferris Fain, the two-time American League batting king, collected two doubles and a single in the Chicago White Sox' 10-5 victory over the Brooklyn Dodgers. The Boston Red Sox turned back the Detroit Tigers 2-1 in 11 innings. Karl Olson hit a single off Dick Donovan to drive in the winning run.

The Philadelphia Phillies beat the Cincinnati Redlegs 6-4 on the wings of Earl Torgerson's two-run homer, and the Philadelphia Athletics edged the Pittsburgh Pirates 3-1 when starting pitcher Alex Keller took matters into his own hands and hit a two-run double for the winners.

Another Brave Hurt

The two major league clubs that got into action against their farmhands suffered disaster. The Atlanta Crackers dealt the Milwaukee Braves a 2-1 defeat and the Chattanooga Lookouts whipped the Washington Senators 4-3.

The Braves suffered another injury when catcher Sam Calderone jammed a finger in his throwing hand trying for a wild pitch by Warren Spahn.

Olson Gets Nod Over Gavilan Friday Night

By MURRAY ROSE

NEW YORK (AP)—Welterweight champion Kid Gavilan and middleweight ruler Carl (Bobo) Olson met Friday for Olson's crown in an outstanding bout that tops one of the greatest weekly boxing programs in years.

Leading contenders are a dime a dozen on the international card. In addition to Olson and Gavilan, here are some of the other luminaries of the game who will throw leather this week:

Featherweight champion Sandy Saddler, heavyweight contenders Dan Bucceroni, Roland LaStarza, Don Cockell and Tommy (Hurricane) Jackson; Randy Turpin, Del Flanagan, Yolande Pompey, Floyd Patterson, Percy Bisset, George Araujo, Art Persley and Armand Savoie, among others.

Olson 9-5 Choice

Olson and Gavilan collide in the Chicago Stadium, which is called on to handle 19,400 customers and $360,000. The 15-round title bout will start at 9 p. m., CST, and will be broadcast (ABC) and telecast (NBC) coast to coast. Chicago and a 100-mile area around the Windy City will be blacked out of the telecast.

The balding, 26-year-old Olson, winner of 12 straight over two years, will be risking his crown for the first time since he won it by trouncing England's Randy Turpin in October. The busy-punching Bobo is a 9-5 choice to whip the 26-year-old Cuban flash. Winner of seven in a row, Gavilan's record is 98-13-4. Olson's 54-6.

Risks Title Fight

Bucceroni, third ranking heavyweight challenger, is risking a possible September title fight in taking on Jackson, a non-stop puncher with a concrete chin, at Brooklyn's Eastern P a r k w a y Arena tonight. Jackson zoomed to a No. 7 ranking by stopping Rex Layne and trouncing Clarence Henry.

Bucceroni is an 8-5 favorite to win the 10-rounder. Starting time is 9 p. m., CST, for the Dumont telecast to some parts of the country.

Roland LaStarza, the No. 4 heavyweight contender from New York, and Don Cockell, the No. 5 challenger from England, collide in a ten rounder at London's Earls Court Arena Tuesday night. On the same card, Turpin meets Sweden's Olle Bengtsson, and Pompey, of Trinidad, takes on Italy's Ivano Fontana.

Moor Inducted Without His Flag

BALTIMORE (AP) — William Arthur Wellington Bey, a "Moorish American," reluctantly submitted to Army induction here Friday despite his listing as a Negro and even though the Moorish flag won't be flying next to the Stars and Stripes.

The 21-year-old Wellington Bey didn't have much choice.

He refused induction last Monday after a sergeant listed him as a member of the negroid race. He contended he was a Moorish American and would step forward only when listed as such.

That threw the military for a bit of a loss because the induction form lists five races and "Moorish American" is not one of them.

Wellington Bey was arrested by the FBI and taken before U.S. Commissioner Ernest Volkart.

Wellington Bey informed the commissioner he was reluctant to serve in the Army unless the Moorish flag were flown next to the American.

Commissioner Volkart suggested Wellington Bey accept induction despite the race classification and without his own flag and said if the Defense Department changed its rules and regulations to satisfy Moorish Americans, Wellington Bey could adjust accordingly.

Stubborn Drivers Block Intersection; Police Ticket Both

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP) — Talk about immovable objects!

Two stubborn drivers played a waiting game at a busy intersection during the height of the morning rush hour, screaming at each other to yield the right of way. Neither yielded.

Cars were backed up for blocks while the drivers, one male and one female, fought the eternal battle of the sexes.

Both lost.

Officers, reconstructing the case, put it this way:

Miss Stella Faye Lowe, 23, attempted to make a left turn. Charles Arthur Loooy was determined to get through the intersection before she made the turn. They met in the center of the intersection, front bumper pressed against front bumper.

"We settled the argument," an officer said. "We booked both on charges of obstructing traffic."

Suspect Betrayed By Perfect Driving

CLINTON, Okla. (AP) — A perfect driving performance landed a forger suspect in jail Friday.

William C. Bloom, 28, faces a police and FBI quiz about $5,000 worth of checks, written on an Emeryville, Calif., bank, which have bounced throughout the South west.

"He was driving so perfectly we became suspicious of him," arresting officers said, adding: "A guy doesn't usually drive that well unless he is trying to hide something."

PARKING MAPPED OUT
JEFFERSON, Iowa (AP) — Mayor L. E. (Tex) Fay has made a tongue-in-cheek suggestion for increasing parking meter revenues here. His plan:

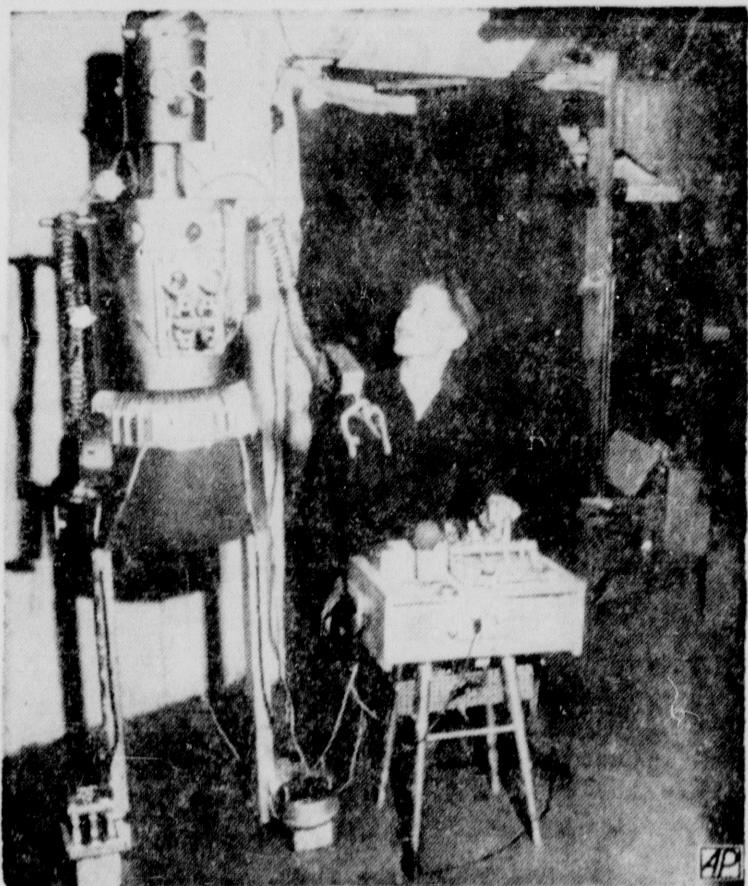

Dollar meters in front of the banks, 50-cent meters in front of "coffee joints," penny and nickel meters elsewhere in the business district "for the poor folks."

Lobbyists In Lansing Likened To Lion Tamers

By JACK I. GREEN
LANSING—If lobbyists control the Michigan Legislature, as Democrats like to say, they're like a lion tamer in a mangy wagon circus.

The lion tamer is willing to go into the cage but he runs the risk of being clawed to death.

In the 1954 Legislature, the lobbyists have been in somewhat the same position.

Of course, when you talk about lobbyists, you have to define your terms.

The agents of the county road commissions for instance, are lobbyists.

Having Hard Time
There are others of the same stripe, too. They are lobbyists legally and actually because they are trying to influence the Legislature, but their power depends largely on their political strength back home.

When the demagogues talk of lobbyists, they mean those big bad men who represent business and industry, private special interests and so; the men who are supposed to flit around Lansing with pockets full of cash, ready to buy dinners and drinks and hotel rooms; the men whose very frown is supposed to make lawmakers tremble like Alice Ben Bolt.

Those lobbyists have been having a heck of time this year controlling the Legislature.

True, they have had some victories. But they have also had some notable defeats. And in many instances they have had to settle for compromises which they could not have considered if they owned the Legislature, as they are said to do.

Old Experts Gone
There are many reasons for the decline in influence of the bold, bad lobbyists, the villains of political fiction.

One is that 1954 is a strategic political year when the Republican Party in the Legislature wants to make as liberal and defensible record as possible.

Another is the fact that the old race of astute, deft lobbyists is gone and many of their successors are anything but able.

Another is the fact that Sen. Donald W. Gilbert (R-Saginaw) got the lobbyist issue in his teeth this year and wouldn't let go.

Another fact is that a handful of lobbyists, new for the most part, learned how to use the whip at an early age but forgot the currycomb is part of the technique of keeping a good saddle horse. These proud few have no unfurled friend and foe alike they are a dead weight on their colleagues.

But probably the most important factor is that the new leadership of the House and Senate is different, younger, more independent than a few years back.

Stir Up New Brew
The younger leadership does not have the same economic viewpoint of their predecessors. Their Republicanism is flavored with the new Deal ideologies under which they matured. They aren't as close to the old-line business leader back home who used to exert such powerful influence on their thinking. They are restlessly seeking a

Cornell

CORNELL — Cornell senior girls held their annual style show at the Cornell Hall Monday night. The theme of this year's show was a 4-H tea. Modeling the garments they made were: 1st year, Elaine Terrien, Virginia Trenary and Carol Ford; 2nd year, Dona Budinger, Caroline Carlson and Ruth Anderson; 3rd year, Suzanne Thompson, Marilyn Trenary; 4th year, Connie Blixt and Ethel Olson; 5th year, Beverly Blixt and Verna Terrien; 6th year, Jean Ford, Peggy Anderson, Maurice Harrison and Geraldine Miron; 7th year, Janice McFadden; 8th year, Arlene Woodard and Jean Campbell.

Several musical selections followed. They were:

Vocal duet, "As Far As I'm Concerned," Charlotte Budinger and Patsy Anderson.

Clarinet selection, "I'm Walking Behind You," Suzanne Thompson and Ruth Anderson.

Vocal duet, "I Have a Mansion," Beverly and Connie Blixt.

Piano solo, "Humoresque," Jean Ford.

Vocal, "I See the Moon," Beverly and Connie Blixt, Charlotte Budinger and Ethel Olson.

Vocal duet, "Chisholm Trail," Linda Olson and Caroline Carlson.

Piano solo, "Mountain Bell Scottish," Nancy Way.

Nancy played the piano for the modeling. Fred Bernhardt 4-H agent showed slides on 4-H activity and Miss Ingrid Tervonen, Home Demonstration agent showed slides on home extension work. Geraldine Miron, president of the club led the group with the flag pledge and Janice McFadden, club vice president led the 4-H pledge. Joseph Heirman, agricultural agent, also attended. Lunch was served by the Cornell Home Extension group.

The flesh of dolphins formerly was considered a delicacy and had the further advantage in Catholic countries of being considered fish that could be eaten on fast days.

compromise between the extremes of economic and political thought which has controlled legislative thinking for decades.

In fact, they are an independent lot in general and they are stirring a yeast in the Legislature which may produce a new governmental brew for the old-style lobbyist to drink bitterly.

The lobbyist of the future may have to learn to drink this brew appreciatively—or give way to a new style of lobbyist.
